

STEAMSHIP TRADE ASSOCIATION
OF BALTIMORE, INC.

NOTICE: “PORT WIDE” POSTING-ONE (1) RTG OPERATOR TRAINEE

November 21, 2022

1. As a prerequisite to apply for training, the candidate shall be P.I.T. and Toploader Certified.
2. Candidate must pass testing requirements set forth in the Training Program including an acrophobia test (boom check), height test, emergency escape, eye exam, and the “Hand Eye Foot Coordination Test”. Practical RTG Crane training will be 2-week course. Any unexcused missed day will result in termination from training.
3. Candidate must meet all safe minimum standards and successfully meet all “Benchmarks” of the RTG Crane Simulator training program.
4. Candidate must meet all safe minimum standards and successfully complete all requirements of the Seagirt Marine Terminal RTG Crane training program.
5. Candidate must be able to physically perform the work duties common to an RTG Crane operator.
6. Candidate must have excellent hand/eye coordination, depth perception, be self-motivated, demonstrate great communication skills, and have patience and focus.
7. Candidates must have an understanding of container workflow, understand yard planning, and be safety oriented.
8. Candidate must pass a drug and alcohol screening.
9. Candidates must possess a valid TWIC, Port ID and current state issued driver’s license.
10. All trainees must sign a 1-year commitment letter to take work when offered RTG crane jobs.
11. Upon certification, individuals must meet a minimum of 100 hours per year in the RTG crane. Individuals with less than 100 hours per year must complete a refresher course.
12. Failure in any portion of the training process, including failure to attend any portion of the training which includes tardiness or absenteeism and/or any at-fault incident/accident during training, will result in your termination from the program.
13. Candidate must have a good work history and P.I.T. record.

THIS POSITION WILL BE AWARDED TO ONE (1) CANDIDATE BY PORTWIDE SENIORITY AND QUALIFICATIONS. APPLICATIONS MUST BE RECEIVED IN THE SENIORITY BOARD OFFICE BY CLOSE OF BUSINESS ON December 7, 2022.